

- No more individual biscuit packets
- Audit cleaning products – currently 3 products, 1 job
- Use paper with old logos first
- New form for tip passes

- More public transport and better connections
- More recycling options
- Less plastic more trees (indoor)
- Healthier eating options
- Solar power
- Encouraging households to capture rainwater
- Encouraging composting
- Get to know neighbours – share vegie gardens
- Solar panels/rainwater tanks on community/council facilities
- Council to supply feeder bus to Cockburn Central
- Council to have bus for staff to run to train stn am and pm
- Less junk mail
- CoC to set example to change all our policies and building laws to reflect commitment to sustainability
- No plastics in Cockburn

- No more paper cups – BYO
- Living Smart for all staff
- Internal email list eg for buying/selling or organising transport between staff
- Raw sugar not white
- Fleet cars all the same

- More bus routes to cover greater area
- Ban retic during all of winter and some of autumn/spring – private and council reserves
- Recycling bins at all community facilities
- More parking at train stns
- CoC fruit as well as bics
- Drip irrig in all new reserves and homes
- Filtered water fountains
- Market gardens
- Incentives
- Green energy only thru whole district
- More subsidy on solar panels and water tanks
- Higher taxes on meat
- Community education for everyone on sustainability
- Recognition for those who are sustainable
- Better water usage
- Less chemicals
- Public transport used more
- Valuing natural areas rather than built environment
- Bringing generations together rather than separating them

- More community education on matters discussed – saving energy/water, growing vegies/ buying simpler products/ no chemicals
- Govt banning over packaged products – encouraging people to buy loose materials

- Community gardens program
- Less paper for council documents
- NO plane trees
- More sustainable lifestyle, less consumption, aware of consequences of wasting resources
- Better public transport infrastructure suited to active transport
- Reduced power usage in city buildings and land
- Promotion to City residents of Living Smart program
- More shared pathways and street trees – mandatory
- Reduce consumption
- Rate discounts/fines for recycling
- Plants around Cockburn that are sustaining
- Innovative sprinkler system that people can see and take advice from
- Living Smart Administration building
- Living Smart course for all
- Accountability in the paper used